

Volunteer Passion Inventory

To help identify the most rewarding nonprofit volunteer opportunity, please complete the following inventory.

1. Where have you volunteered in the past?

Which of these assignments did you find most rewarding and why?

1. Ask yourself, "What is important to me?" The environment? Education? Hunger? Animal welfare? Helping sick children? Which of the following most appeal to you, i.e., which would you find most rewarding to personally support? Organizations that...

- Work with children, e.g., Big Brothers-Big Sisters, YMCA, YWCA, Boys and Girls Club, etc.
- Work with animals
- Address health issues (which area specifically, e.g., cancer, heart, lung, Alzheimer's, kidney, transplant organizations, etc.)
- Provide disaster relief, e.g., American Red Cross
- Address global issues
- Support the environment
- Educate others
- Support the arts
- Help the disadvantaged learn skills and find employment, e.g., Cerebral Palsy, Goodwill Industries, etc.
- Build homes for others, e.g., Habitat for Humanity
- Other

2. What expertise can you offer a nonprofit organization in exchange for the development they will provide to you?

3. What competencies or skills have you and/or your organization identified as areas for development?

4. Of these, which one(s) could you develop at a nonprofit organization that may be difficult to develop in your current place of employment?

5. What type of legacy would you like to leave, i.e., what would you like your colleagues and/or community to remember you for after you leave?